BELL HIGH SCHOOL RECEIVES NEW SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

April 23, 2014 (BELL, CA) – New scholarship program announced for Bell High School.

Home to more than 3300 students with over 800 seniors, this program will help seniors attend universities and colleges throughout the United States. The “Future Scholars of Bell” scholarship program was created by Terry Rodrigue, CEO of Interwest Consulting Group (“Interwest”) and is designed to provide students, who reside in the City of Bell, the support necessary to achieve their goal of higher education. The program, in its inaugural year, is made possible through generous donations from business owners endeavoring to make a difference.

“We are delighted to introduce this important program for the youth of Bell,” said Terry Rodrigue. “Interwest has had the pleasure of working with this hard working community since 2010 and to be able to give back in a very specific way and impact the lives of the students for years to come is truly rewarding. As a father of two and a business owner, I am very excited and proud to be a part of such a memorable program. Recipients of the 2014 Future Scholars of Bell will receive a contribution ranging from $1500 - $10,000. We have received 36 applications and up to 10 different scholarships will be awarded. Winners will be announced in early May.

“We were thrilled when Interwest approached us about starting this exciting program,” commented Rafael Balderas, Principal of Bell High School. “Our students work very hard and covering the high cost of tuition can be a challenge for many of our families. Receiving financial support from businesses, such as Interwest, makes a critical difference in whether or not these students will be able to further their education.”

A celebratory dinner banquet and ceremony will be held May 22 at the Bell Community Center for the students and their families. Local dignitaries and officials will be on hand to honor the outstanding Bell students and to thank our generous sponsors.
